TCF Bank Raises $22,000 For The Fallen and Wounded Soldiers Fund

TCF Bank Customers in Michigan Donated to Help Local Veterans and Their Families

WAYZATA, Minn., February 2, 2015 – TCF Bank and its customers raised $22,000 to support The Fallen and Wounded Soldiers Fund™ (FWSF), a volunteer-run, nonprofit organization that supports wounded and fallen veterans and their families throughout Michigan. TCF Bank customers in Michigan donated funds at more than 50 branches during the past three months, and the donations will sustain FWSF veteran recipients for one month.

“We are appreciative of our customers and our team members who raised money to support those who risked their lives for our freedom,” said Lou Campos, Executive Vice President and Michigan Director of Branch Banking at TCF Bank. “TCF has a strong commitment to build better communities and we are proud to support our veterans and their families.”

“It is impossible to overstate the amount of financial distress many Iraq and Afghanistan veterans are experiencing here in Michigan – everything from foreclosure to hunger,” said Lynn Phillips, Executive Director at The Fallen and Wounded Soldiers Fund. “The FWSF provides hundreds of thousands of dollars in emergency assistance to local vets each year and we couldn’t do it without the support of our volunteers and great companies like TCF Bank.”
